

Shujie (Sidney) Leng

(617)417-6663 • sidneyleng@gmail.com • <http://muckrack.com/sidney-leng>

•LinkedIn: <http://www.linkedin.com/in/shujieleng> •@SidneyLeng

WORK EXPERIENCE

Foreign Policy Magazine; Washington, D.C.; Editorial Intern June 2014 – present

- Help FP improve its data-visual presence on its website by writing data-driven blogs embedded with charts.
- Manage FP's China Channel and its original site tealeafnation.com with web production that involves web design, copyediting, laying out articles, editing images, creating slideshows, and embedding audios and videos.
- Research, fact check, and write articles on a variety of topics on China, including a magazine feature profiling 50 influential global thinkers in the U.S.-China relationship.
- Contribute to FP's targeted push to Chinese audience and work with social media editor to promote TLN contents in English and Mandarin for Facebook and Twitter.

National Public Radio; Washington, D.C.; Washington Desk Intern January – May 2014

- Logged, researched, edited, and prepared audiotapes for national political reporters and White House correspondents.
- Pitched story ideas to the Parallel blog and helped with China-related stories by researching using China's social media.
- Recorded press conferences and did field tape syncing for reporters and radio news programs using Marantz audio kit.

Worcester Telegram & Gazette, Washington, D.C.; DC correspondent September 2013 – February 2014

- Served as a Washington correspondent for two local papers with a combined circulation of approximately 140,000.
- Published several stories on the 2013 government shutdown, Farm Bill, flood insurance, and campaign finance.
- Covered the entire Massachusetts congressional delegation.

Wicked Local Brookline TAB; Needham, Mass.; Editorial Intern June – August 2013

- Published more than 10 local news and features on government, healthcare, education, clean energy, immigration, and art.
- Shot photos and produced several multimedia stories with video and audio using Final Cut Pro for the website.

The Arts Fuse (Boston's online art magazine); Boston, Mass.; Freelancer April – August 2013

- Produced a multimedia story about the effect of declining art coverage on Boston's artists and art institutions.

National School of Development (NSD); Beijing, China; News Correspondent March – June 2012

- Covered breaking news, alumni events, and economic lectures for NSD, a think tank at Peking University.
- Translated Chinese documents including newsletters and background information to English, vice versa.
- Assisted the Director of Public Relations with editing the school magazine and coordinating public relations.

Zhejiang Television; Hangzhou, China; News Program (News 007) Intern July – August 2011

- Produced two 20-minute investigative stories with researching, interviewing, transcribing, and editing sound bites.

QSL Sport Social Media; Beijing, China; Online News Editor Intern March – June 2011

- Edited and updated news and photos of domestic and foreign sports games on the website.
- Designed and managed the website of the Chinese Football Association.

SKILLS

- Illustrator, HTML, CSS, Basic Python, Basic JavaScript, Git, Datawrapper, ECharts, Tabula, TimelineJS, QGIS, Google Openrefine, WordPress, Final Cut Pro, Adobe Premiere, LexisNexis.
- Mandarin (Native)

EDUCATION

Boston University College of Communication

Boston, Mass.

Master of Science in Journalism

Awarded, May 2014

Beijing Sport University College of Management

Beijing, China

Bachelor of Arts in Public Administration

Awarded, June 2012